Charting the Course...Moving Forward with ESSA.

Sunday, March 19, 2017 Pre-Conference Sessions

$125.00 per session or 2 sessions for $225.00

AM

“A” *Connecting After School Learning to the Common Core.....*ElizaBeth Parker Phillips
Afterschool and extended learning programs have unique opportunities to expand horizons and make connections while supporting school day learning. What you see after school may and should look different. This workshop will dive into looking at the CCSS through an after school lens that marries the standards to the best practices of afterschool including choice and inquiry learning. ElizaBeth will make this an engaging, hands-on and entertaining learning experience that can be applied immediately to your After School Program!

“B” *New Directors Workshop.....*Celeste Merriweather & Leticia Roman
Learn the most essential information about how to successfully lead federal programs in your school district from two people who have “been there”. Meet colleagues who are new to the role of a federal program administrator and establish a valuable network of support that is essential to fulfilling your new role through NAFEPA. During this workshop you will learn more regarding Accountability systems, data management and organizational tips, federal parental involvement requirements, as well as additional ways to not just survive but thrive in your new role as a federal program administrator!

“C” *ESSA Hot Topics.....*Tiffany Winters Kessler
On December 10, 2015 the Every Student Succeeds Act was passed. In 2016, ED released proposed guidance on accountability, assessments and supplanting and ED has released numerous guidance documents on ESSA compliance. What will 2017 bring? More guidance? A State application template? More proposed regulations? This session will cover the hot topics that have come up since ESSA’s passage providing states and districts with the most up to date information on ESSA as we approach our first year of implementation!

“D” *Coaching Implementation and Student Outcomes.....*Keith Young/Kerry Purcell

States and districts allocate tremendous funding to improve outcomes for the highest need students. At the same time, the gap between funding and student outcomes is often illusive. Come see how Focused Schools targets implementation of best practices annually in more than 1,000 classroom and dozens of programs through coaching focused on students results. The work is based on the best practices of John Hattie, Paul Bambrick-Santoyo, and others. Leave with at least dozen, practical strategies districts and schools can implement immediately to narrow the know-doing gap.
